

What kind of cabinets do you have?

We carry RTA (ready to assemble) cabinets. They come in a variety of styles and colors. Style and color availability vary depending on the brand. We also carry a line of custom cabinets that can be modified in a large variety of ways with lots of color, door style, and stain options.

How do you calculate my cabinet price?

Cabinet price varies by company and the cost is calculated by each individual cabinet used in the layout. Cabinet sizes and heights can affect the individual cabinet cost so the best way to determine the price for your kitchen is to have us calculate an estimate for the specific cabinets you need. Kitchen layouts and quotes are

Do you refinish existing cabinets?

No, we do not refinish or paint existing cabinets.

Can I buy only cabinet doors?

No, we do not sell only cabinet doors. RTA cabinet companies typically do not sell cabinet doors individually.

Are your cabinets soft close?

Yes, all of the cabinets we carry use soft close hinges and dovetail construction.
